

2017 AASHTO ANNUAL MEETING

Phoenix, Arizona | September 25–28 | Sheraton Grand Phoenix

Council on Active Transportation Meeting

Tuesday, September 26, 2017

7:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Dial-in: 1 (888) 585-9008; Conf. Rm.: 423-006-359#

Webinar: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/3901438176109116929>

Meeting Objectives:

- To obtain a common understanding of the purpose and role of the Active Transportation Council.
- To gain an understanding of AASHTO's policy and technical work in the active transportation arena and the resources available to the Council.
- To identify policy and technical issues to address, and outline critical next steps for the upcoming year.

7:00 Welcome and Introductions

- Welcome and Review of General Purpose Statement
- CCR Vision for the Council on Active Transportation
- Council Members' Introductions
 - Overview of your background, expertise and role within the state DOT.
 - What is the biggest active transportation challenge facing in your state?
 - How can this Council be most valuable to your state?

Leslie Richards, PA (Chair)

Carlos Bracerias, UT

Council Members

8:00 Active Transportation Activities and Resources

- AASHTO Overview
 - AASHTO policies related to Active Transportation
 - Technical activities
 - Design Committee
 - Technical Committee on Geometric Design – Green Book update
 - Technical Committee on Non-Motorized Transportation
 - Pedestrian Guide, Bike Guide
 - Planning Committee's Multi-modal Task Force update
 - Center for Environmental Excellence
- Discussion of External Groups and Activities (see handout)

Jim McDonnell, Shannon Eggleston

Joyce Taylor, ME

Toks Omishakin, TN

Bryan Hong

8:45 SWOT Analysis

- Based on conversations and information provided, what are AASHTO's strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats in the active transportation arena?

9:30 Issues for the Council to address and Initial/Top Priorities for the Coming Year

- Policy
- Technical

10:00 Meeting Adjourns